

OKANOGAN COUNTY DISTRICT COURT
149 N. Third Avenue
PO Box 980
Okanogan, WA 98840

WHERE TO FILE

Any person desiring to change his/her name or that of his/her child may apply to the District Court of the county in which he/she resides.

FILING

You, the petitioner, must complete the Petition for Change of Name which is provided by the clerk.

TOTAL FEES: $155.00

The filing fee is $78.00. NOTE: If the Name change is granted, an additional fee of $77.00 will be assessed, which will cover the Auditor's recording fee and 3 certified copies. Please be prepared to pay this fees on your court date.

Documents needed for the court hearing:Adult-Photo Identification card. Child-Copy of birth certificate and photo identification card for the parent requesting.

COPIES

Additional certified copies of the Order are $5.00. Regular copies are $.50.

REQUIRED NOTIFICATION TO OTHER AGENCIES

The original Name Change Order will be recorded for you with the Okanogan County Auditor. The $42.00 recording fee is included in the fees charged at the time the petition is granted.

The Department of Vital Records in your birth states requires a certified copy. If you were born in Washington, mail the certified copy to: Department of Health, Center for Health Statistics, P.O. Box 9709, ET-11, Olympia, WA 98507-9709. It is suggested you request a copy of your birth certificate reflecting the name change. There is a charge for this procedure. Include a stamped, self addressed envelope.

The Social Security Department requests and keeps a certified copy of the name change. The address of the local office is: Social Security Administration, Social Security Number Unit, Federal Building, 301 Yakima Street, G-301, Room 212, Wenatchee, WA 98807 1-800-772-1213.

You must change the name on your driver's license. The Department of Licensing requires a copy, not certified, to issue a new license.

If you are in the military service, you will need an additional certified copy for your military records.

HEARING AND COURTROOM PROCEDURES

Petitions for Change of Name are heard on Monday afternoons at 1:30 p.m. You will be given a court date when you complete the Petition for Name Change and pay the filing fee.

When the Judge calls your name, report to the front of the Courtroom. The Judge will then ask you some general questions and review your identification documents. If the Judge allows the name change, you will return with the file to the District Court office, the paperwork will be processed, and certified copies will be made
